Frequently Asked Questions

Q) How many books can I issue at a time?

For Explorers, its 2 books at a time and for The Story Seekers its 4 books at a time.

Q) How many days is a book issued for?

Books are issued for a 2 weeks period. One week extension is possible when informed in advance.

Q) Is there a late fee for the books issued?

Yes, there is a 5/- per day per book late fee charged for books. If you are returning an overdue book, do check in at the counter to clear any pending fines.

Q) My membership expired, and I have books with me. What happens now?

There is a fine of 5/- per day per book once your membership has expired. Do check in at the counter to clear any pending fines.

Q) I lost my book/damaged my book. What next?

Library will procure the book and you will have to bear the charges for the new purchase.

If you are traveling out of town for a vacation, whether small or extended, remember to drop in your library books. If books are overdue for more than a month, they will be considered lost and library will purchase a new copy using the refundable security deposit.
